Contrary to popular belief, eternal life doesn't begin in heaven, but here on earth. According to Jesus, eternal life is "knowing the only true God and Jesus Christ whom He sent" (John 17:3). To really know someone is to witness his or her consistent responses in different situations. This relationship is deepened by shared experiences that allow us to anticipate their responses in similar circumstances.

The Gospel is the good news about God who never changes. This is why Jesus compares the end-times to the "time of Noah(Matt 24:37-39), compares Jon the Baptist to Elijah (Mal 4:5-6.) and Revelation is the "revelation of Jesus Christ" (Revelation 1:1)

I the Lord do not change. So you, the descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed. (Malachi 3:6)

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. (Hebrews 13:8)

God is not human, that he should lie, not a human being, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act? Does he promise and not fulfill? (Numbers 23:19)
